

Fatima Al-Ali is the current Legal Relationships & Partnerships Manager at Qatar International Court. At her work, she focuses on developing the legal community through empowerment-led initiatives, by opening channels with local and international organizations.

She graduated from Sussex University with a Law degree with Honors.

Prior to joining QICDRC, Fatima headed the International Relations department at the Rule of Law & Anti-Corruption Center in Doha as she was the Director of Foreign Affairs.

Fatima is one of the most active members of the Qatar Business Women Association. Diversifying herself even more she participated in a Ph.D. research study on the role of women in the Middle East with the focus on Qatar- working alongside a group of feminists.