

Jacqueline Purcell is a key-note speaker, a multi-award-winning high-performance educator, specialist trainer, and author who builds capacity for leadership confidence, behavior change and organizational development. She has an experience of working with Heads of State and United Nations Agencies on world projects across-the-sectors.

Jacqueline Purcell holds post Grad Degrees in Education and Research. She is an IPRA Board Member and UK and Ireland Chapter Chair, Golden World Awards Judge, International Leadership Consultant and Specialist Curriculum Designer, and CEO of Jasper Alliance London.

For establishing the first Toastmaster International public speaking academies in Iraq, she received a British Expertise Award for Outstanding International Leadership in 2015, followed by winning the IPRA Golden World Awards for the same project in 2021. Jacqueline Purcell was awarded with the PRO PR Globe Award in 2021.