ABOUT ME

My name is Elene Gogolashvili and I am a senior student of Caucasus Business School, majoring in finance.

In addition, I have participated in exchange programs for the past three semesters, in particular, I was an exchange student at the University of Valladolid in Spain under the Erasmus program for a semester, and within the bilateral exchange program at Fairleigh Dickinson University, in USA for two semesters.

The desire to receive an international education pushed my career goals aside, and right now I am taking my first steps from a career perspective.

As for Interests, I love music and everything related to it, in addition, my hobbies are yoga and Pilates, I also like skiing, traveling, interacting with people and making changes.
