

The Sponsors' Bill of Rights

This Document is Composed, Acknowledged, and Complied by the Caucasus University Alumni Relations Office & Alumni Association

The Alumni Relations Office & Alumni Association (hereafter referred to as the Association) serve the Alumni needs that are associated with and beneficial for the development of the Caucasus University. They maintain a flawless connection between alumni and the university, facilitating alumni involvement in the development of the university. Their goal is to strengthen the gathered image of alumni in front of both inner and external audience, thus planning and implementing suitable events and activities. Both are not-for-profit entities financed by the university, sponsors and alumni themselves.

Our sponsors require full confidence in us; therefore, the following rights for the sponsors are guaranteed:

- The disclosed vision and core values of the Alumni Relations Office and Association will be maintained and not altered.
- Comprehensive information about the identities of the members implementing the projects will be made available.
- Full disclosure of financial statements will be provided.
- Every question or request for additional information will be addressed fully, in a timely and correct manner.
- Donations will be used for their initial purposes.
- The handling of information, will be arranged according to the sponsor's defined wishes while maintaining utmost confidentiality and care if such is requested