About LSB

Luxembourg School of Business (LSB) is the first Luxembourgish graduate business school. The School was created by a team of academics with a strong entrepreneurial spirit and a successful track record of creating internationally accredited (AACSB) business schools. Luxembourg School of Business partners with the international business community and prepares professionals to lead in a global business world.

Our professors are academics and business leaders: some of them are executives from multinational organizations while others are affiliated with internationally ranked institutions such as M.I.T., University of Michigan, Cornell University, Duke University, ESADE Business School and more.

Luxembourg School of Business offers a full-time Master in Management, a part-time Master in Business Administration (Weekend MBA), as well as short specialized programs for individuals and tailor-made programs for companies (Executive Education).

The Master in Management and the Weekend MBA programs are recognized and accredited by the Luxembourg Ministry of Higher Education and Research and our institution is a member of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), the leading global business education network.

Choose two courses of interest!

Corporate Finance (4 ECTS)

In Corporate Finance, students will learn how to read, evaluate and analyze financial statements and how to use these statements to measure the health, profitability, and other important indicators of a company. Students will gain a deeper understanding of the connection between corporate finance, financial markets, and the economy.

Corporate Valuation (4 ECTS)

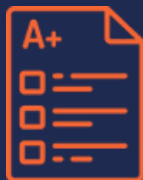

The course aims at providing students with the conceptual and theoretical framework surrounding valuation issues and the practical tools to address such topics in real-life situations. The course concentrates on the most widespread methodologies to carry out corporate valuation based on income, cash flows and comparables.

Marketing Management (4 ECTS)

In this course, students will be able to develop a broad understanding of the core marketing concepts and their practical application. Students will examine key marketing principles and their relationship with the business environment, make decisions in the marketing field, and gain a practical marketing approach just as it occurs in real companies.

Duration of the class is 4 hours weekdays.

Examination will be on the last week of the Summer School.

Certification of Accomplishment will be provided with ECTS.
