

Information Technology Management

Interview with the admission committee

The oral exam is conducted in front of the Admissions Committee of the Graduate Program of the School of Technology in the format of an interview, during which the competence of the applicant in the field of information technology is established.

Oral exam questions are:

- Programming Concepts;
- Principles of Computer Systems & Networks Operation;
- Fundamentals of Computer Security;
- Fundamentals of IT Infrastructure;
- The Role of Information Technology in The Organization.