- Georgia struggles for freedom.
- This ongoing effort represents not just the story of the Georgian people but also a significant chapter in the broader narrative of Europe and the World.
- I extend gratitude to the EU and the European Commission for steadfast commitment.
- THANK YOU for MANY Erasmus+ and JEAN MONNETS ACTIONS.

CHALLANES

Shortage of EU-Aware Professionals who know the EU not only from books, but also from research, science, practice and connections.

Absence of the Official Education Policy on obligatory and Mandatory Nature of the EU studies

Absence of lack of Incorporation of EU Studies in different education programs and in different levels of education

Fact-based Teaching about the Europeanisation of Georgia (not only EU, its history, institutions, law, internal market, social-economic policy)

Lack of valuable, relevant standard-based research on the EU and the Europeanization of Georgia; at the same time, lack of literature in the Georgian language (for example, there is still no book EU Economic and Social Policy.

Disinformation about the EU and European Integration in Georgia

POSITIVES

Universities offer EU-related courses to students (mostly in Law programs); there are some European Studies programs at several HEIs.

Jean Monnet Actions direction is getting more and more popular in Georgia and EU studies touch different programs

Regional Universities benefit from Erasmus+ programs; Exchange programs play important role.

Erasmus+ National Office is active, collaborative and friendly

Unofficial Networking of Erasmus+ and Jean Monnet Actions' people

Good level of Dissemination

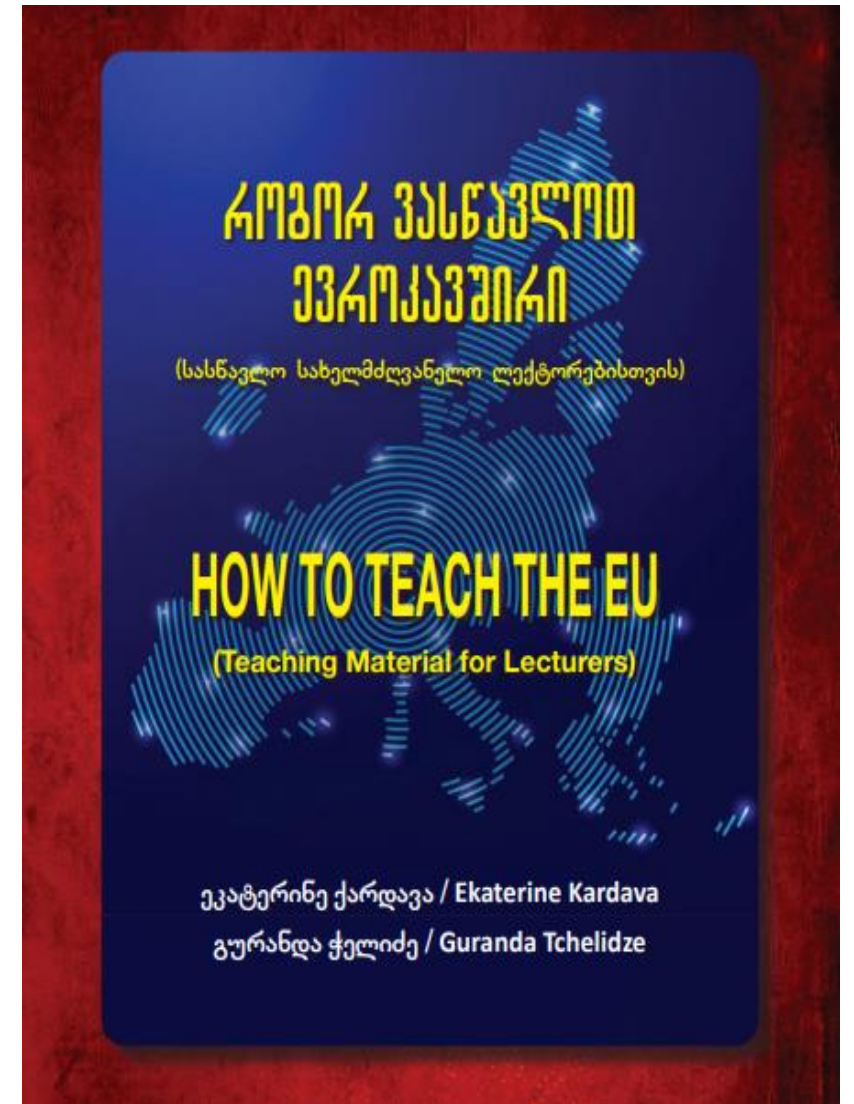

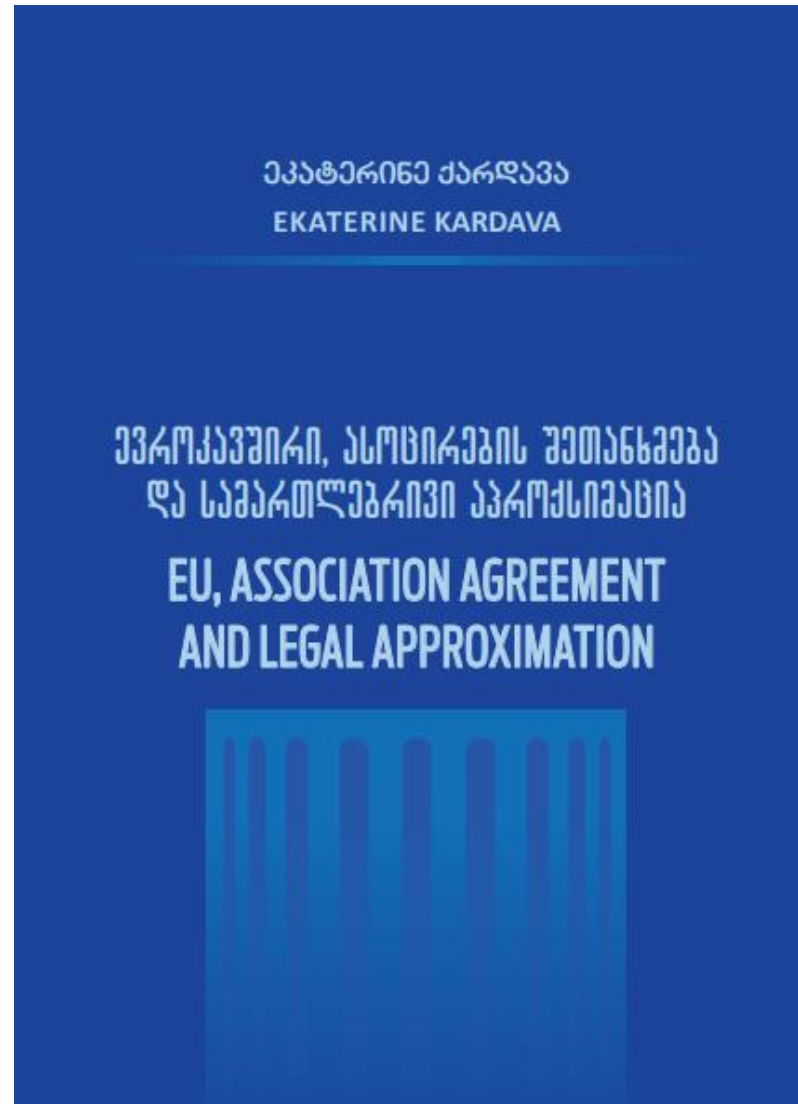

Will and Wishes in the nature of Recommendations

- Increase the financial scheme for Georgia or increase the quota so that there are more Erasmus+ programs in Georgia;
- Especially increase Erasmus+ programs in regional universities. They should be given priority;
- Develop Visit opportunities in Brussels (emotional and cultural ties and more feeling of the EU (in youth));
- Support to translations of books or elaboration of new textbooks in Georgian;
- Establish the mandatory teaching about the EU; advocate this issues at the Policy level.
- Launching broad-scale trainings for academia and scientists about the EU and Europeanisation dynamics of Georgia.
- Develop comparative studies and researches in all field of teaching related to the EU, EU-Georgia relations and Integration processes.
