ABOUT ME:

Hello, my name is Mariam Dautashvili, and I am a student at the Caucasus University School of Tourism. I graduated from Gymnasium "Shavnabada" and was awarded a state grant. Throughout my studies, both at school and at university, I have always tried to stay active, motivated, and engaged in various projects and activities. I participated in a student conference, where I was awarded first place. In my very first year, I also took part in an exchange program at Fulda University in Germany. This experience taught me how to live independently in a new environment and how to adapt and communicate with students from different cultural backgrounds.

I am a highly communicative, positive, and hardworking person. I enjoy taking on new challenges and learning foreign languages. Outside university, I love spending time with my friends, having fun, and traveling together – for me, these moments are a way to recharge. I am also delighted to have become a student ambassador at Caucasus University, as this role gives me the opportunity to be actively involved in student life and contribute to its development.
