ABOUT ME:

My name is Mariam Davitadze, and I study International Relations and Diplomacy in the English-language faculty at Caucasus University. I am glad to have become an ambassador of the university's third cohort. Although I have not yet gained professional experience in this field, I work as a translator, which is closely related to my major and will help me with future career opportunities. I enjoy reading books, listening to music, and studying different cultures and world history. In my free time, I like to dance and I am a member of the university's dance club. I'm passionate about traveling, as it helps me broaden my horizons and better understand the global world. I also enjoy communicating with people and being involved in different activities. My goal is to constantly seek new knowledge and experiences, stay active and motivated, and make the best use of my skills both personally and for the benefit of society.
