

Sopho Ushkhvani, Tiko Gioshvili, Levan Mosakhlishvili

Tallinn University of Technology

On May 19–23, 2025, in Tallinn, Estonia, within the framework of the Erasmus+ program administrative mobility, representatives of Caucasus University visited Tallinn University of Technology in Estonia: Sopho Ushkhvani from the Caucasus School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Tiko Gioshvili, Manager of the Career Development and Employment Support Service, and Levan Mosakhlishvili, a representative of the Caucasus School of Law.

As part of the program, participants had the opportunity to tour the campus of Tallinn University of Technology and engage in discussions with academic staff. Additionally, they visited the university's library, which stands out for its modern equipment and diverse services that provide comprehensive academic support for both students and lecturers.

The visit aimed to strengthen international relations and promote the exchange of experiences between partner universities.

This mobility fully aligns with the objectives of the Erasmus+ program - to foster the sharing of international experiences, cultural exchange, and professional development in the field of higher education.