

Giorgi Dzidziguri, Vakhtang Ghaghvishvili

The University of Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Trnava, Slovakia

Within the framework of the Erasmus+ administrative program organized by the partner university in Trnava, Slovakia, representatives of Caucasus University actively participated in cultural and professional activities aimed at strengthening international cooperation.

During the visit, participants had the opportunity to take part in guided tours, within the framework of which they visited the university's academic institutions and learning environment. In addition, working meetings provided an opportunity for our staff to establish cultural and professional relations with administrative staff.

The visit not only deepened the relationship between the universities, but also opened up opportunities for potential future cooperation. Participation in the administrative staff exchange program serves the mission of the Erasmus+ program to promote international cooperation and professional development between higher education institutions.