

Lika Sarkisovi, Mariam Khanoiani

Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania

Within the framework of the Erasmus+ Staff Mobility for Training program, representatives of Caucasus University from Student Financial Services Department successfully participated in a one-week exchange visit to Babeş-Bolyai University in Romania. The program was organized by the host university with the aim of fostering international cooperation and promoting professional development.

During the visit, participants had the opportunity to engage in a variety of cultural and educational activities. These included introductory meetings, lectures on project management, and visits to the city's historical and cultural landmarks. The visit helped strengthen the partnership between the universities and created a strong foundation for future joint projects.

The visit not only deepened the relationship between the universities, but also opened up opportunities for potential future cooperation. Participation in the administrative staff exchange program serves the mission of the Erasmus+ program to promote international cooperation and professional development between higher education institutions.