ABOUT ME:

I completed my secondary education at Tbilisi Classical Gymnasium, graduating with a gold medal. Currently, I am a second-year student at Caucasus University. In parallel, I successfully completed a one-semester exchange program at Corvinus University of Budapest. Although I haven't worked in my field of study yet, between 2020 and 2022 I actively collaborated with various companies in the area of social media management. My hobbies include traveling, discovering new and unfamiliar places, and creating memorable experiences with friends. I also enjoy engaging in new and interesting activities that provide me with valuable experiences and knowledge. One of my other interests is meeting new people. I find it fascinating to interact with individuals from different cultures, as it gives me the opportunity to explore perspectives that are not part of my everyday life, but that can teach me a lot and broaden my understanding of the world.
