Academic program in ECTS
The undergraduate Psychology program consists of 180 ECTS credits, 30 ECTS credits each semester. Consequently, the probable duration of the program lasts for four years. Each academic year consists of two semesters. One semester totals 19 academic calendar weeks appropriately; each academic year covers 38 weeks. 1 ECTS credit sums 25 credit hours that, along with students' contact hours (classes, seminars, practical works), includes independent working hours (for midterm and final grading and credit hours for preparing homework and presentations). In the Bachelor's program of Psychology, 145 ECTS credits are allocated for the courses and modules of the general sphere: • 115 ECTS credits are allocated to compulsory courses; • 30 ECTS credits are allocated to elective courses (the student has the right to substitute up to 10 ECTS credits with free electives, taken as part of the free component). 35 ECTS credits are allocated for free components. Note: If the foreign student presents the document of general English level proficiency, which is required by the program then s/he is free of studying general English and instead will study Georgian language within the framework of these credits. If the foreign student also knows Georgian Language then s/he can study other foreign languages or just use free credits, within the framework of these credits that are required by the academic program.
Prerequisites to Program Admission	➤ A person who possesses a full general education is entitled to study at the Psychology Program. ➤ The precondition for admission to the educational program is to pass the Unified National Examinations.

	➤ Passing the English Language as a foreign language exam in the Unified National Examinations is a mandatory requirement for enrollment. ➤ Prospective students eligible to the program without passing the Unified National Examinations must attest to English language B2 level of proficiency (IELTS-6.0; TOEFL-78; or other relevant international certificate confirming B2 level proficiency), or he/she has to pass a University administered English language B2 level exam. ➤ Mobility to the program is allowed following procedures set by the relevant law.
