Program Volume in Credits

The Bachelor's Programme in European Studies comprises 180 ECTS credits: 60 ECTS credits per academic year and 30 ECTS credits per semester. Accordingly, the standard duration of the Bachelor's programme is three years. The academic year is organized according to the semester system. A semester consists of a set of teaching weeks, as well as the period allocated for additional examinations and the assessment of students' performance in those examinations. The academic year comprises the semesters and the vacation period between them. One ECTS credit is equivalent to 25 hours and includes both students' contact hours (lectures, seminars, practical classes, etc.) and independent study time (preparation for midterm and final examinations, as well as time allocated for completing assignments and preparing presentations).

Upon the expiration of the standard duration of the Bachelor's Educational Programme in European Studies, a student with outstanding academic requirements is entitled to continue their studies for the purpose of completing the programme during additional semesters (not exceeding four semesters), while retaining student status.

The Bachelor's Educational Programme in European Studies comprises a total of 180 ECTS credits.

The major field of study comprises 130 ECTS credits:

- 95 ECTS credits are allocated to compulsory courses;
- 35 ECTS credits are allocated to elective courses (students may complete up to 10 ECTS credits as free electives selected from the University's free component).

The free component of the programme comprises 50 ECTS credits:

- 25 ECTS credits are allocated to general university courses;
- 25 ECTS credits are allocated to English language courses.
