

Kakha Shengelia, Svetlana (Lana) Kevkhishvili, Meri Khvichia, Anastasia Gudadze
ISCTE Institute of Lisbon, Portugal

Within the Erasmus+ Administrative Mobility Program, the President of Caucasus University, Kakha Shengelia, Head of the President's Office, Svetlana (Lana) Kevkhishvili, Head of the Student and Organizational Events Service, Meri Khvichia and the Manager of the Student and Organizational Events Service, Anastasia Gudadze visited the ISCTE Institute of Lisbon in Portugal.

Within the framework of the visit, various introductory and working meetings were organized with the Vice President for Internationalization of ISCTE, representatives of the International Relations and Internationalization Office, and the Director of the School of Technology and Architecture.

During these meetings, the parties summarized the activities and mobilities carried out within the Erasmus+ Credit Mobility Project. Representatives of the University of Lisbon also introduced the colleagues to the Erasmus+ Mundus Master's Programs and discussed international educational opportunities and prospects for cooperation.

During the meeting with representatives of the School of Technology and Architecture, the parties also discussed opportunities for future collaboration, the importance of sharing academic and administrative experience, strengthening international cooperation, and implementing joint initiatives.