

Tsitsi Chubinidze

Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad, Romania

From May 24 to 29, within the framework of the Erasmus+ Administrative Staff Mobility Programme, Tsitsi Chubinidze, Administrative Director of the Master's and Doctoral Programs at the Caucasus School of Governance, participated in the International Staff Week organized by Aurel Vlaicu University of Arad, Romania.

The program brought together representatives of higher education institutions from various countries and aimed to facilitate the exchange of experience, strengthen international cooperation, and develop new partnership opportunities within the Erasmus+ framework.

Throughout the week, participants attended working sessions, workshops, and discussions focused on international projects, intercultural communication, approaches to teaching and student support in diverse academic environments, as well as prospects for strengthening cooperation between universities. They also had the opportunity to learn more about Romanian culture, language, and the city's landmarks.

As part of the mobility program, Tsitsi Chubinidze presented Caucasus University, its educational programs, and its international activities.

Participation in this mobility program provided valuable experience both in terms of professional development and the exchange of experience with international partners within the Erasmus+ framework.
