Lille Catholic University, France

Within the framework of the Erasmus+ program, Caucasus University representatives, Manager of Student and Corporate Events Office Mariam Baramidze and International Relations Department Coordinator Maka Tchigitashvili participated in the International Week program at the Lille Catholic University, France.

The program discussed issues of internationalization and global challenges. Also, during the visit, the participants had the opportunity to engage in both professional and cultural activities aimed at deepening international cooperation and sharing experience between partner universities.

The purpose of the visit was to share experience and academic practice between universities. Representatives of higher education institutions from different countries participated in the event. Participants presented their universities, exchanged information on educational systems and institutional specifics, which contributes to the improvement of educational processes and deepens cooperation with universities from different countries.
