

Nato Baghiashvili

Polytechnic University of Valencia, Spain

From June 1–5, 2026, Nato Baghiashvili, Senior Manager of the Student Services and Academic Process Monitoring Department at Caucasus University, participated in the International Staff Week hosted by the Polytechnic University of Valencia in Valencia, Spain, within the framework of the Erasmus+ Administrative Staff Mobility Program.

As part of the program, participants were introduced to contemporary approaches and mechanisms for the internationalization of higher education, the university's international development strategies, and international marketing practices. During the International Staff Week, participants had the opportunity to share their own experiences, learn about best practices from universities in different countries, and discuss the challenges and opportunities related to the internationalization of higher education.

The program also included cultural activities, such as a visit to the historic center of Valencia, providing participants with a deeper understanding of the city's cultural and historical heritage.

The visit represented an important opportunity for professional development, the exchange of international experience, and the establishment of new partnership connections.