

კავკასიის უნივერსიტეტი
CAUCASUS UNIVERSITY

Honorary Doctor

Professor Gurmant Singh Grewal

Professor of Political Science and Diplomacy, Caucasus University, Tbilisi, Georgia

Professor Grewal received his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Political Science and Diplomacy from the Caucasus University on October 12, 2012. He has earned an MBA and BSc Honours from Punjab Agricultural University.

Professor Grewal taught Business Management at University of Liberia. He has been the Vice Chairman and Governor of New Westminster College. He has been a successful entrepreneur, manager and a politician.

He and his wife Nina Grewal were the first married couple to concurrently serve in Parliament in Canada in 2004. Mr. Grewal held senior positions of Deputy House Leader, Co-Chair of the Joint Standing Committee of the House and Senate on Scrutiny of Regulations, Senior Shadow Minister of Foreign Affairs, Multiculturalism and Canadian International Development, during his three terms as Member of Parliament in Her Majesty's Loyal Official Opposition of Canada from 1997 to 2006. Mr. Grewal has travelled the world and has met with senior world leaders to discuss important international issues and has played a significant role in global peace, respect for human rights, promotion of democracy and rule of law. He has been called 'the Ironman of Canadian Parliament'. Mr. Grewal was awarded the Queens Golden Jubilee Medal.