

Co-funded by the European Union

Career Success

Choosing a career that matches your profile leads to greater motivation, satisfaction and professional success.

Self-Awareness

Understanding your interests, strengths, values and skills is the first step towards making informed career decisions.

Vocational Profile

A vocational profile identifies your abilities, interests and professional values to match you with suitable careers.

Vocational Guidance

Career guidance provides professional support and personalized advice for choosing an educational and career path.

Career Guidance How do you create a career profile?

Practical Experience

Work placements, student projects and volunteering help develop skills and confirm career interests.

Career Exploration Plan

Explore different careers through internships, volunteering and practical experiences before making a final decision.

