Campus Location:

Caucasus University is located in the old part of Tbilisi, which is surrounded by historical buildings. The campus has amazing view that overlooks the both sides of river "Mtkvari". The history of building of Campus began in 1909 when one of the gymnasium schools started functioning. In spite of the rehabilitation works, heritages of the school are untouched and still noticeable. Caucasus University is just round the corner from street "Agmashenebeli" that has become one of the most attractive places to tourists in Tbilisi. "Agmashenebeli Avenue" is known for its 19th century architecture.

Why Georgia?

Once you have been accepted as an international student at Caucasus University, you will need some additional information and quick facts about the place you are coming to.

Georgia is located at the crossroad of Europe and Asia. It lays at the eastern end of the Black Sea, with Turkey and Armenia to the south, Azerbaijan to the east, and Russia to the north, over the Caucasus Mountains. Georgia has a unique and ancient cultural heritage, and is famed for its traditions of hospitality and cuisine. The capital and largest city is Tbilisi. The main sights of the city are clustered in the Old Tbilisi district, which is placed on the right side of river “Mtkvari”. This area is well-known and attractive for its sulfur bathhouses fed by natural hot springs. Nearby, on Shardeni Street you will find plenty of modern, popular restaurants, open air café-bars, contemporary and entertaining night clubs or art galleries. On the left side of river you can experience amazing lounge bars on street Agmashenebeli. It is one of the attractive and popular avenues in the historical part of Tbilisi. The street is known for its 19th-century classical architecture.

Breathtaking Georgian Nature

Nature in Georgia is very diverse. To the north, around places like Kazbegi or Mestia, you have the mighty Caucasus Mountains with their snow-capped peaks. Around Kutaisi you will find forests and canyons, along with therapeutic spring water in Borjomi. Let's not forget districts of Kakheti, which are notable for local Georgian wine and barbecue. Each season is magical in Georgia with its peculiarities and special places. Whether you visit our ancient cave cities, marvel at the highest settlements in Europe or experience the sights and sounds of our amazing theatre, food, arts, wine and music, Georgia will capture a place in your heart forever.

Food and Wine

Nothing tells you more about the spirit and culture of a country than its native food and wine. And Georgia's food and wine is amongst the best in the world. It may surprise you to know that Georgia has the oldest continuous unbroken tradition of wine making in the world, stretching back over 8,000 years and today, there are more than 500 indigenous grape varieties still cultivated here. A quick look at its geographical position and its landscape shows you why it is the perfect place to grow grapes.

Black Sea Sight, City: BATUMI

The modern and sunny Batumi is a Georgian southern city and a black sea resort with high-class luxury hotels. The city is located on the Black Sea coast and is surrounded by exotic subtropical flora. Batumi is built in a natural Black Sea bay. The city is not only important seaport. Besides, it is also one of the most attractive to tourists. The architecture of Batumi is the combination of European and Asian styles. Buildings with elements of Georgian, Turkish, Imperial Russian, Soviet, English, French and colonial architectures are very impressive. One of the most crowded places in the city is Batumi's boulevard which represents symbol Batumi.
