Course Name	Europeanization of the Central and Eastern Europe
Course Code
Course Status	Elective
Course Duration	Spring Semester
ECTS	5 Credits, 40 contact hours
Instructor	Dr. Sergi Kapanadze
Objectives of the Course	This course aims at providing students with the knowledge about the transformative processes that have taken place in the Central and Eastern Europe as a result of this region's approximation with the European Union. Course aims at providing theoretical outlook on the process of Europeanization. At the same time it will look at different policy areas where europeanization was substantial and will examine case studies of particular countries. This course will also look at the accession process, identifying main milestones in the EU's relations with the neighbor countries. This course has a very practical objective. It aims at providing the student with the practical insights on how the states of the Central and Eastern Europe acceded to the European Union. Students who have taken this course should be able to analyze the prospective enlargements of the European Unon and be able to compare them with the previous enlargement rounds.
Prerequisites	Good knowledge of English language Institutions and Policies of the European Union
Course Format	During the first half of the course, lecturer will be delivering presentations and sharing information with the students on the Enlargement processes in the European Union, and europeanizatio of certain policy areas. Even though during this part of the course mainly lectures will be read, special time will be allocated to the discussions of the topics, hence second part of the lectures during this part of the course will be more interactive and seminar type. In the second half of the course students will be delivering presentation on the Europeanization of the particular policy areas in a particular Central and Eastern European state. Every presentation will be preceded by an introduction by the lecturer and will be followed by an interactive exchange of opinions among the students and the lecturer. Students will be graded not only for these presentations, but also for the term papers, which they have to submit by the end of the academic year.

Assessment	Participation and Attendance	10%
	In-Class Presentations	30%
	Midterm	30%
	Final Exam	30%
	Students have to prepare the presentations. They will have to pick a country from the CEEC and a particular policy sphere, which has undergone the Europeanization process. Then they will have to analyze what changed and how it changed and will have to deliver the results of the research to the class. This exercise will be evaluated with the 30 % of the total grade. Presentations should be an hour each and should be prepared in groups of three, or four students. Typical presentation will consist of four parts. First, overview of a country's rapprochement with the European Union and the processes through which it had to go, on her way to the European Union; second, general overview of the Europeanization of this country in various fields; third, overview of a policy area under question before the Europeanization; fourth, overview of the same policy area during and after the accession to the European Union. Visual materials and method of presentation will be assessed very strictly. In the middle of semester the students will have to write the midterm. Midterm will consist of the multiple choice, open questions and essay questions. In the end of the semester students will write a final exam, which will be in-class exam lasting for two hours. During this period students will be checked for their analytical skills and their ability to utilize practically what they learnt in the class. This exercise will have a value of 30 % of the total grade. Attendance and participation during the classes will be graded with 10 points. Grade Scale: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A 90%-100%</li> <li>B+ 85%-89%</li> <li>B 80%-84%</li> <li>C+ 74%-79%</li> <li>C 64%-73%</li> <li>D 50%-63%</li> <li>F 0%-49%</li> </ul>
Plagiarism and Cheating:	You are expected to be honest and honorable in your fulfillment of assignments and in test-taking situations. Plagiarism and cheating are serious forms of academic misconduct. Any student caught cheating on an examination will receive a score zero for the examination
Core Reading Materials	Reading Materials can be viewed in the Syllabus. These materials, if they are books, can be freely accessed in the IES library or Department of International Relations library. If the materials are articles, then they will be provided by the lecturer.

Supplementary Materials	Supplementary Materials can be accessed through the consultation with the lecturer regarding a particular topic.
Learning Outcome	Students, who have taken this class should be able to understand the process of Europeanization as a wider phenomenon which affects the states relating to the European Union. Students will know several instances of Europeanization in various spheres of public life of the Central and Eastern European States; for instance, students should be able to draw parallels between the Europeanization in a particular field in one of the already member states of the EU, and any other state, where the Europeanization process is still taking place.
