BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY

Général Denis Mercier, GOFLH, ONM, MSM, DFNWC

Général Denis Mercier has a distinguished record of ethical leadership and is a senior General Officer of the French Air Force. He was confirmed by the North Atlantic Council on 23 March 2015 and presently serves as NATO Supreme Allied Commander Transformation.

Général Mercier has served as a Governor and Distinguished Fellow of New Westminster College of Caucasus University since 2015 and concurrently serves as Vice Chairman of the Board of Governors. He received his professorial appointment as a Professor of Ethical Leadership from Caucasus University in January of 2018.

He joined the French Air Force academy in 1979 where he completed a Master's degree of Science in 1981. Qualified as a fighter pilot in 1983, he acquired extensive experience both as an operational commander and as a fighter pilot, having flown a total of more than 3000 flying hours primarily on Mirage F1C and Mirage 2000C aircraft, including 182 hours in combat missions.

Above all, NATO has been a constant throughout his career, at the tactical, operational and strategic level. Indeed, he commanded the 1/12 "Cambresis" Fighter Squadron, a founding unit of the NATO Tiger Association. He participated in numerous other NATO exercises and operations, including Operation Deny Flight over Bosnia-Herzegovina in 1994. Subsequently, he served in the NATO department of the French Joint Operational Planning Headquarters, working as a project officer for Exercise "Strong Resolve '98", during which he embarked aboard USS Mount Whitney as director of Joint Fires. In 1999, he integrated the operational planning of French participation in NATO Operation Allied Force in Kosovo.

Posted from 1999 to 2002 as deputy head of the combined joint task force deputy branch at Regional Headquarters AFNORTH, in Brunssum (Netherlands), he contributed to the development of the Combined Joint Task Force (CJTF) concept. He was a member of the combined analysis team for Exercise "Allied Effort '01" and an evaluator of the CJTF HQ for Exercise "Strong Resolve '02". He also acted as liaison officer for the CJTF HQ COMSTRIKFLTANT (Commander Striking Fleet Atlantic) stationed in Norfolk.

Back in France, he was appointed as the commander of Reims Air Force Base, integrating the Mirage F1CR squadrons under his command into ISAF in Afghanistan.

From 2004 to 2008 he was assigned to the French Air Force headquarters in Paris, as the head of the plans division and was nominated as a flag officer in 2007 as Acting Chief of Staff (ACOS) for budget and performance.

He then commanded the French Air Force Academy in Salon-de-Provence, where he was a transformative leader, fostering enduring partnerships with allies and prestigious universities.

Following his nomination as senior military advisor for the Minister of Defence in 2010, Général Mercier prepared and participated in all NATO ministerial meetings between 2010 and 2012, as well as the NATO summits of Lisbon and Chicago. Moreover, he was the Minister's Special Advisor for Operation Unified Protector over Libya. He became the French Air Force Chief of Staff on September 17th 2012, which formalized his contact with Air Chiefs throughout the Alliance.

Général Mercier's has been awarded numerous foreign honours and decorations from Spain, Poland, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Chili, Brazil, UAE, Saudi Arabia and Singapore. He has been awarded the rank of Grand Officier of the French Legion of Honor, and among other distinctions, an officer of the French National Order of Merit.

As a Governor, Professor of Ethical Leadership and Distinguished Fellow of New Westminster College of Caucasus University, Général Denis Mercier is dedicated to supporting the highest standards of academic excellence and is committed to the advancement of Caucasus University, the New Westminster College of Caucasus University and its Global Network of Fellows.
