

Mariam Midelashvili

Caucasus School of Economics (CSE)

A graduate of Caucasus University School of Economics, Mariam Midelashvili continues her studies in Italy.

Mariam enrolled in the International Management Master's program at the University of Trento with full funding and a monthly stipend. Mariam also enrolled at the Corvinus University in Budapest, but chose Italy instead.

"One of the reasons for enrolling in Caucasus University was its importance in the international market. Caucasus University gave me great knowledge, motivation and experience to try my hand at foreign universities and continue my studies in Europe, for which I am extremely grateful.
