

Nona Buzhgulashvili

Caucasus School of Economics (CSE)

A graduate of the Caucasus University School of Economics, Nona Buzhgulashvili continues her studies in Hungary.

Nona enrolled in Corvinus University's Master of Finance program with full funding and a monthly stipend.

"As soon as I enrolled in Caucasus University, I knew that I would have the opportunity to connect with European education. Indeed, in my third year, I spent one semester at the Warsaw School of Economics as part of the Erasmus exchange program, where I gained a lot of knowledge and experience. And now I follow this path and continue my studies in Budapest. Caucasus University played a very big role in the formation of my goals and the realization of said goals, for which I am extremely grateful. I hope that in the future I will be able to share the acquired knowledge and experience."
