

Salome Katsitadze

University of Economics in Katowice, Poland

„Erasmus+ gives us a unique chance to live completely independently in the European zone and get to know ourselves better. During my life here, I developed different views and became acquainted with modern trends, which I think will help me in my career advancement in the future. Of course, thank you to Caucasus University for that.”