

Cotne Kitovani

Cracow University of Economics, Poland

Caucasus School of Business

„Within the Erasmus+ program, I have studied at Cracow University of Economics, Poland for one semester. My routine was full with novelties and adventures. I had interrelation with student from all over the world and I have attended lectures with great interest. During this period, I have collected unforgettable and unique memories, traveled and acknowledged European culture from the perspective of different countries.

Erasmus+ program has played significant role on my personal growth, upon my return with new beliefs and ideas, I have realized that now I am more hardworking and independent. Participating into this program has been the best decision of my life. Thanks to Caucasus University for giving me this chance!”