

Nana Tatarashvili

Middle East Technical University, Turkey

„From May 13 to 17, I had an opportunity to visit Middle East Technical University, Turkey, as part of the Erasmus + administrative mobility program. Within the staff week program, I have met 25 administrative staff from different countries.

During the week, we participated in panels. Topics were connected to inclusion, diversity, and digitalization. Panelists were advisors of university president, and they shared their own experience. The aim was of the staff week was to exchange ideas and knowledge to have fruitful discussions with colleagues.

Besides, I got the chance to present Caucasus University and discuss the possible collaboration with other universities across the world.

The international staff week was opportunity for personal growth and sharing knowledge and experiences.”