

Amalia Mkhitariani

University of Alcala, Spain

From May 12–16, 2025, a representative of Caucasus University, Amalia Mkhitarian, participated in the International Staff Week held at the University of Alcalá, Spain, city of Alcalá, within the framework of Erasmus+ administrative mobility.

During the visit, the participant had the opportunity to engage in both professional and cultural activities aimed at deepening international cooperation and sharing experiences between partner universities. On the first day of the visit, a presentation of the University of Alcalá and the International Relations Office was delivered, along with presentations from all participating universities.

The participant had the opportunity to visit all campuses of the University of Alcalá, interview administrative staff, and obtain the necessary information. The visit significantly deepened the ties between the universities and created a solid foundation for future cooperation.
