

Ketevan Adeishvili, Temur Khutsishvili

University of Tuscia, Italy

During May 5-9 week, 2025, representatives of Caucasus University participated in the V Edition of International Staff Training Week held at the University of Tuscia in Viterbo, Italy, within the framework of the Erasmus+ program administrative mobility.

During the visit, participants had the opportunity to engage in both professional and cultural activities aimed at deepening international cooperation and sharing experience between partner universities.

During the week, thematic presentations were made on the university's international projects, double degree programs, student and academic staff mobility, as well as workshops and a new project in data journalism was presented.

Participants had the opportunity to tour the campus of the University of Tuscia, meet with administrative staff, and participate in roundtable discussions on improving mobility and opportunities for developing double degree programs.

The visit to the University of Tuscia significantly deepened the ties between the universities and created a solid foundation for future cooperation.

This type of mobility fully serves the objectives of the Erasmus+ program — to promote international experience sharing, cultural exchange, and professional development in the field of higher education.