

Biography

Giorgi Giguashvili is a corporate governance specialist. He heads the Board Support function at TBC Group, where his work involves the development of corporate governance systems and the enhancement of governance practices.

Giorgi holds a Doctor of Law degree. He graduated from the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) in Law and from Stanford University in Business Management. He is also a UK-accredited corporate governance professional and an Associate Member of the Chartered Governance Institute of the UK & Ireland.

He teaches Corporate Law, Corporate Governance, and Fundamentals of Business Regulation. He is the author of several scholarly publications and a co-author of the Law of Georgia on Entrepreneurs and its commentaries.

His professional interests include corporate law, corporate governance, strategy, and the development of governance architecture.

Publications

1. Giguashvili, G. (2017). Legal Tools for the Development of Capital Market. Journal of Finance, Accounting and Management, 8(1), 66–82.
2. Giguashvili, G., & Jugheli, G. (2022). Commentaries on the Law of Georgia on Entrepreneurs. Investors Council Secretariat.
3. Jugheli, G., & Giguashvili, G. (2021). Commentaries on the Draft Law on Entrepreneurs. GIZ Publishing.
4. Giguashvili, G. (2018). Regulation of Corporate Capitalization Mechanisms under Capital Market Law. Tbilisi State University Press.
5. Giguashvili, G. (2017). Specific Features of Business Activities in Offshore Financial Centers. Collection of Scientific Works of Tbilisi Open Teaching University, 63–73.