Kodolanyi Janos University, Hungary

On February 16–20, Ms. Nino Makhuri, Manager of the Research Facilitation Department at Caucasus University, conducted a staff mobility visit to Kodolányi János University, Hungary, within the framework of the Erasmus+ administrative staff exchange program.

The purpose of the visit was to strengthen cooperation between the partner universities, share experience and best practices in the field of research, and plan future joint collaborative initiatives.

During the visit, a meeting was held with the Dean of the Faculty of Economics, Dr. Tímea Zsófia Tóth. The parties discussed the main directions of their universities' research activities, identified areas of common interest, and explored opportunities for implementing joint research initiatives.

The meetings contributed to enhancing communication between the partner institutions, defining shared objectives, and planning concrete steps for future cooperation, which will positively impact the academic and research development of both sides.
