Estonian Business School

"As part of the Erasmus+ Administrative mobility program, I had the opportunity to visit the Estonian Business School in Tallinn. Within the framework of the mentioned mobility, I had the opportunity to meet the Head of the research and development program, the head of undergraduate programs and the of the academic process office.

At the meetings, we discussed the specifics of the accreditation processes, development and implementation of bachelor's and doctoral programs, the expansion of cooperation at the doctoral level, the future prospects of joint and exchange programs, the planning and implementation of joint research projects, the mechanisms for evaluating the learning outcomes of the program, the procedures for attracting, enrolling and mobility of students.

I had the opportunity to present Caucasus University and share with them our best experience of internal and external quality assurance mechanisms and implementation of educational processes."
