

Giorgi lashvili

University of Economic in Katowice

"As part of the Erasmus + academic mobility, I was at the University of Economics in Katowice, where during the planned visit I conducted a short course of lectures on cyber security. In addition, within the framework of the visit, I participated in the 12th International Week , where I gave a report on the research activities of the Caucasus University And share our experiences."